

Some assessment criteria Tonje Lona Eriksen

Conversation is essential to measure where I am in the process, the field and in general everyday life.

Conversation leads to coincidences.

Movement and memory play together.

The thought follows movement.

Rely on restlessness.

It is important to have an empathetic and simple language.